Know all Men by these Presents, That the "Aetna Life Insurance Company," of Hartford, Conn., the Mortgagee named in a certain mortgage deed, executed and delivered by James A. Curry and Sarah C. Curry his wife of the County of Madison and State of Iowa to The Aetna Life Insurance Company for the purpose of securing the payment of One promissory note of even date, for the sum of Twenty Five Hundred Dollars, and the interest notes thereto attached, executed by the said James A. Curry and payable to the order of said Aetna Life Insurance Company on the first days of January 1897, 1898, 1899; said mortgage deed being dated April 5th 1893 and recorded in the Recorder's office of Madison County, State of Iowa in Book 28 of Land Mortgages on page 47

Now in consideration of One Dollar to us paid by John Norris we, the said Aetna Life Insurance Company, do hereby assign, transfer, and set over to the said John Norris his heirs, executor, administrator, or assigns, the said mortgage deed, also the said promissory note and debt thereby secured, without recourse, and all our interest in the estate thereby conveyed, with full power to collect the money due thereon, with the interest, and in case of payment to discharge and release the same as fully as we might or could do if these presents were not made.

In Witness Whereof, we have caused these presents to be signed by our president and sealed with the seal of the Company, the 9th day of July A.D. 1897,

In presence of
