The Public.) (E.F. Connors, Recorder.
By Irene E. Connors, Deputy.

Vinterset Iowa, June 24th 1903 I, L.F. Clifton, do hereby certify to whom it may concern, that I have received full satisfaction of a certain note for Two Hundred Dollars dated in October 1902 and due March 1st, 1903, given to me by J.D. Hawn and A.R. Hawn, said note being fully satisfied and discharged. I further certify that I never sold said note, and that it is lost, and I agree with the payors aforesaid, that should I ever find said note, I will return the same cancelled, and that I have no claim against them whatever account of said note.
