State of Wisconsin, County Court for Green Lake County:
At a special term of the County Court within and for said County of Green Lake begun and held at the Probate Office in the village of Green Lake, on the first Tuesday of August A.D. 1908.

President Hon. S.G. Potter, County
Judge.

In the Matter of the Will of
Henry Stutley, deceased.

The Last Will and Testament of Henry Stutley late of Village of Markesan in said County, having been proved and admitted to probate, and Fred W. Collingbourne and Albert Steers of the Village of Markesan, being named therein as executor hereof; and, it appearing that they are willing to accept said trust, and are competent and suitable therefor; and the said Henry Stutley in and by his will having requested and directed that no bond or other security be required or given by either of said executors and the Court not having ordered otherwise and that the personal estate of said deceased amounts to about Thirty Two Thousand dollars, and he had no real estate. IT IS ORDERED, that the said Fred W. Collingbourne and Albert Steers and each of them be and they are hereby excused from giving any bond as such executors pursuant to the request of said testator contained in said will, and that letters testamentary do immediately issue to them said Fred W. Collingbourne and Albert Steers.
Dated August 4th A.D. 1908.

By the Court,
S.G. Potter, County Judge.

State of Wisconsin, Green Lake County, SS:

The State of Wisconsin, To all to whom these presents shall come or may concern, and especially to Fred W. Collingbourne and Albert Steers of said County GREETINGS: KNOW YE, THAT, WHEREAS, Henry Stutley late of Village of Markesan in said County, lately died testate, and being at the time of his decease an inhabitant of said County, by means whereof the proving and allowing of his Last Will and Testament, and granting administration of all and singular the goods, chattels, rights, credits and estate whereof he died possessed, and also auditing, allowing and finally discharging in the accounts thereof, is within the jurisdiction of our County Court of said County, and, WHEREAS, on the Fourth day of August A.D. 1908 at Green Lake in said County, before the Hon. S.G. Potter Judge of our said County Court, the Last Will and Testament of the said Henry Stutley was duly proved, allowed and admitted to probate; and WHEREAS, Fred W. Collingbourne and Albert Steers executors named in and by said Will are therein and thereby excused by said testator from giving any bond or other security as such executors, and the Court not having otherwise ordered but having directed that these letters do issue, We, therefore, reposing full confidence in your integrity and ability, have granted, and by these presence do grant, the administration of all and singular the goods, chattels, rights, credits and estate of said deceased; and any way concerning his said Will, unto you the said Fred W. Collingbourne and Albert Steers as executors of said Will. Hereby authorizing and empowering you to take and have possession of all the real and personal estate, (except the homestead) of said deceased) and to receive the rents, issues and profits thereof, until said estate shall have been settled, or until delivered over by order of said Court to the devisees or heirs of said deceased; and to demand, collect, recover and receive all and singular the debts, claims demands, rights and choses in action which to the said deceased while living and at the time of his death did belong. And requiring you to keep in good tenantable repair all houses, buildings and fences on said real estate which may and shall be under your control; and to make and return into the said County Court within three months, a true and perfect inventory of the real estate and of all the goods, chattels, rights, and credits of said deceased which shall come to your possession or knowledge; to administer, according to law, and the Will of said testator, all the goods, chattels, rights, credits and estate of said deceased which shall at any time come to your possession, or to the possession of any other person for you, and out of the same to pay and discharge all debts, legacies and charges chargeable on the same, or such dividends thereon as shall be ordered and adjudged by said Court; to render a just and true account of your administration to said Court within one year, and at any other time when required by said Court, and to perform all orders and judgments of said Court by you to be performed in the premises.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused the seal of our said County Court, to be hereunto affixed. WITNESS The Hon. S.G. Potter Judge of the said Court, at Green Lake in said County, this Fourth day of August A.D. 1908.

S.G. Potter, County Judge.

COUNTY COURT OF GREEN LAKE COUNTY, WISCONSIN.

State of Wisconsin, Green Lake County SS:

PROBATE OFFICE.

I, Geo. F. Yahr do hereby certify that I the Clerk of the County Court of Green Lake County Wisconsin, for the purpose of certifying to copies and transcripts of all records and files of said County Court, to be used in any other State, agreeably to section 905 of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

I DO FURTHER CERTIFY, That I have compared the annexed copy of Letters Testamentary and of Order for letters without bond with the originals thereof now remaining in this office, and I find the same to be correct transcript therefrom and of the whole of such original letters and order that the account of the executors has been settled by the Court, but no order has ever been entered discharging said executors from said trust.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the County Court of said County at Green Lake this 7th day of December A.D. 1910.

Geo. F. Yahr.

Clerk of the County Court of Green Lake County, Wisconsin.
