State of Wisconsin Milwaukee County SS:

William N. Fitzgerald, and George C. Markham, of the City and County of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin, being first duly sworn, on oath depose and say; That William E. Fitzgerald, William N. Fitzgerald and George C. Markham, all of the City of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin, were, on the Sixth day of February, A.D. 1900, pursuant to the last will and testament of R.P. Fitzgerald, late of the City and County of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, nominated and appointed Executors and Trustees of the Estate of the said R.P. Fitzgerald, and were on the Sixth day of February A.D. 1900, appointed to act in such capacity by J.M. Pereles, County Judge of Milwaukee County, having jurisdiction in such matters. That subsequent to the appointment of said Executors, said William E. Fitzgerald died, and the said William N. Fitzgerald and George C. Markham were then nominated as the surviving Executors and Trustees of said last will and testament. That by the terms and conditions of said last will and testament certain trusts were created, which have not, at the present time, terminated, and will not terminate in all probability, for some years to come. That William N. Fitzgerald and George C. Markham are now, and at all times have been, since the Sixth day of February, A.D. 1900, acting in the capacity of Executors and Trustees of said Estate, and in all probability will continue to act in such capacity for many years to come. That said Estate remains unsettled and can not, by the terms and conditions of said last will and testament, be settled finally for many years hence, and no order terminating their appointment as such Executors has been entered, and they are still acting as the Executors and Trustees of said Estate, and that this affidavit is made for the purpose of furnishing evidence to the effect that William N. Fitzgerald and George C. Markham were acting in their capacity as Executors on the date on which they as such Executors executed a certain satisfaction of mortgage, said mortgage being executed by John F. Handley and Anna Handley, bearing date the Fifteenth day of July A.D. 1901, and secured on land in Madison County, Iowa, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in and for Madison County, State of Iowa, on the Eighteenth day of July A.D. 1901, at 3.15 o'clock P.M. in Book 41 of Mortgages, on page 224. That an additional reason for making this affidavit is that the County Court for Milwaukee County will not issue a certificate certifying to any matter which is not on file in said County Court, and there being no order on file in said County Court discharging said Executors, the only evidence which said Court will certify to at the present time, would be a certified copy of the Probate Proceedings to date.
