State of Iowa Madison County SS:

I, Abner L. Newlin of lawful age, of Madison County, Iowa, being first duly affirmed depose and say that I have been a resident of Madison and Dallas Counties for over forty-five years. I further state that I remember distinctly of attending the funeral of J.H. Griffin son of Cyrus Griffin deceased. That said funeral and burial occurred about the year 1870 and that the age of said J.H. Griffin at that time was about nineteen years. I further state that he died intestate and was a single man never having been married and had no issue. I further state that Eliza A. Griffin died on January 19, 1891. I remember distinctly of attending her funeral. She was buried by her son J.H. Griffin, both of whom lived on their home farm, that is the northwest quarter of section 9 township 77 range 28 and they were both buried in the North Branch Cemetery three miles east of Earlham. Said Eliza A. Griffin died intestate, being the widow of Cyrus Griffin deceased. I further state that she was never married after the death of her husband Cyrus Griffin and she left surviving her, her heirs; Permelia H. Griffin widow of Milton W. Griffin and A. Grace Griffin and William D. Griffin children of Milton W. Griffin deceased who was a son of Eliza A. Griffin deceased. Ella J. Diggs, formerly Ella J. Griffin, Sarah Elizabeth Constable, formerly Sarah Elizabeth Griffin and Anna G. Williams formerly Anna G. Griffin daughters of Eliza A. Griffin deceased, Homer V. Griffin, Benjamin S. Griffin, Oliver P. Griffin and Edgar Griffin all sons of Eliza A. Griffin deceased. All the sons and daughters of Eliza A. Griffin were of lawful age at her death. The dates of their birth are given correctly in the chain of title to the northwest quarter (NW $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section 9-77-28. I take the date of the death of Eliza A. Griffin from the records of the Friends Church.
