State of Iowa, Madison County. ss. I, A.J. Rollstin, being first duly sworn, upon oath depose and say, that I am a resident of Madison County, Iowa.

That I was well and personally acquainted with one Alvah Buckingham who, on September 1st 1851 entered from the U.S. Government the NE $\frac{1}{4}$  SE $\frac{1}{4}$  Sec. 21, 75-27 and who on the 23rd day of September 1851, together with his wife, joined in the execution of a deed of conveyance to above described land to David Bishop, in the name of A. Buckingham were one and the same identical person.

That said deed shown at No. 2 of said abstract, as appears of record, fails to show the name of grantee therein, but of my own personal knowledge, the said David Bishop was the grantee therein, and that he entered upon said premises after purchasing the same and remained thereon and held same by peaceable and uninterrupted possession until he sold and conveyed the same to Isaac Debush on the 5th day of September 1854.

That the Mary "Polston" named as grantee in the administrator's deed recorded in deed record "K" page 257, shown at No. 11 of abstract, is the wife of this affiant, is now living and her correct name is Mary Rollstin, and she is the same and identical person who was grantee in said deed.

That the A.H. Amarine and Clarissa Amarine, named as grantors in the deed recorded in deed record "L" page 261, and shown at No. 12 of abstract, were husband and wife, on the 12th day of September 1859 at which time they executed said deed, and the A.H. Amarine; also the Thomas Amarine and Mary Amarine, the other grantors in said deed shown at No. 12 of abstract were husband and wife at the time of execution of said deed.
