State of Iowa, Polk County, SS: I, C.E.Hunn, of said County and State, being first duly sworn upon my oath depose and say that I am now and have been for more than 18 years last past a practicing attorney in the City of Des Moines, Iowa, and as such I assisted in the settlement of the Estate of one Benjamin O. True, who died several years ago in Rochester, New York.

That in 1899 a mortgage was given to said Benjamin O. True under his initials B.O. True by one Geo.R.Lewis, unmarried, for $1100.00, which was recorded in Mortgage Record 39, page 109 of the Records of Madison County, Iowa, and that said B.O. True, mortgagee, was the same and identical person as the Benjamin O. True, who executed a release of the said mortgage, acknowledged June 23, 1902, filed for record July 9, 1902 and recorded in Miscellaneous Record 15, page 217 of said records. I further state that I have no interest in the title to the land affected hereby, but make this affidavit for the purpose of establishing of record the facts as herein stated.

C.E.Hunn.

Subscribed and sworn to before me and in my presence by the said affiant this 27th day of May, A.D.1918.

Walter Canady.

Notary Public in and for Polk County, Iowa.
