Hettie E. Winship, Recorder
Winifred Whedon, Deputy
Fee $.50 ✓ # 3911.

State of California County of Los Angeles SS: I, Lucy Hayward Kuehl, of said County and State, on oath say that I am a daughter of Lydia Ann Hayward, who was a daughter of Lewis Cornmagplate of Madison County, Iowa, deceased.

That said Lydia Ann Hayward died intestate on or about the second day of April A.D. 1898; that she left her husband, Joseph Hayward, Sr., surviving, and left as her sole and only heirs at law her daughters, Lucy Hayward Kuehl, Mary Elizabeth Ritchie, and Jeannette Howard.

That the estate of said Lydia Ann Hayward has long since been fully settled; that said Mary Elizabeth Ritchie died intestate on or about January 23rd, A.D. 1920, leaving surviving her husband, W.B. Ritchie, and as her only heir at law her father, Joseph Hayward Sr., that she left surviving no child, no adopted child, nor any child of a deceased child; that the estate of Mary Elizabeth Ritchie has been fully settled.

Lucy Hayward Kuehl

Subscribed and sworn to before me and in my presence by the said affiant this 19th day of October A.D. 1920.
