Hettie E. Winship, Recorder
Winifred Whedon, Deputy
Fee $ .50 ✓ # 3983.

State of Iowa Madison County SS: I, Harry W. Hill, being of lawful age and a resident of Madison County, for the past thirty five years, being first duly affirmed, depose and say that I was and am well and personally acquainted with U. D. Kenworthy, and that my brother Luther Hill on April 26, 1902 ~~deeded~~ to said U. D. Kenworthy by Warranty Deed, lot Six (6) Block One (1) Nicholson's Addition to the Town of Earlham, Iowa, said deed being recorded in Madison County deed record 14, page 239, and that in the abstract to said lot the conveyance is shown to be to W. D. Kenworthy. I further state this is either a clerical error on the part of the abstractor or the records, because I have positive memory and positive knowledge that said lot at this time was ~~deeded~~ to U. D. Kenworthy and that W. D. Kenworthy mentioned above is in fact U. D. Kenworthy. I further state that Ulysses D. Kenworthy Grantor in a certain warranty deed dated March 28, 1903, recorded in deed record 12, page 525, conveying Lot Six (6) Block One (1) Nicholson's Addition to Earlham, Iowa, is the same identical person as U. D. Kenworthy mentioned in the above described deed.
