additional rent at the time the first note is due and to be a part thereof; said lessee also agrees to cut near the surface all weeds on said land within the limits of the public highway thereon, on or before the fifteenth day of August of each year; that he will neither burn or remove from said lands any of the straw raised on said land but stack the same on as small a place as possible on said place as directed by lessor; that he will thresh all small grain raised on said place as soon as it is possible and safe, after harvesting the same, giving lessor due notice of the threshing; and husk and crib all corn raised thereon before the thirty-first day of December of each year, and properly care for all crops in their season; that he will at all times allow the lessor, his agents or his assignees to have free access to said premises for the purpose of observing the crops growing thereon, and the conduct of the lessee in cultivating said land, and in caring for the crops and improvements thereon, and also for the purpose of removing therefrom at any time lessor's share of said crops as hereinafter stipulated, also to allow lessor, his agents, grantees or lessees to enter upon said land, or any part thereof, as soon as the crops are removed therefrom for the purpose of employing and making other improvements in the fall before this lease expires. And in further consideration of this lease the party of the second part hereby agrees to cultivate said lands in the following crops, to wit: Not over 45 acres in corn, and balance (except meadow or grass land) in small grain, which is to be sown to clover and timothy by lessee free of charge; and second party to pay for one-half of such clover and timothy seed, unless he fails to receive any benefit from such meadow in which case first party is to pay for same. First party agrees to assist second party to maintain and keep up the surface ditch used to keep the water off of the hills during such time second party agrees to board first party free of charge.

And to pay the party of first part the annual cash rent of $888.75 to be paid as follows: to wit: 444.00 on the 1st day of September 1921, and $444.75 on the 1st of February 1922, of each succeeding year thereafter until the expiration of this lease as evidenced by the two promissory notes of said second party endorsed by of even date herewith and made a part hereof without copy attached.

Said second party further agrees to change the crop each year and to sow grass -- acres each year and cultivate said grass ⁱⁿ seed with the small grain sown; and first party to furnish the grass seed; said second party further agrees not to break up any of the grass or pasture land on said premises without the written consent of first party.

That no change shall be made in the terms of this lease, and no agreement between the lessor and the lessee in any way varying, adding to or taking from ^{the terms of} this lease, or directly or indirectly affecting the tenancy of this lease established, shall be deemed to exist between the parties hereto unless the same be reduced to writing and signed by the parties hereto; the object being to have all contracts touching said tenancy evidenced by writing, especially any agreement to sell or dispose of any part of the crop raised.

The strict compliance with each and every condition of this contract shall be held and construed as the essence hereof and as the consideration and inducement for making same.

In the event that said second party sells or disposes of the crop raised on said premises before the notes given for the rent become due, said notes and rent shall become due and payable at once, and without notice, and the said first party may, at his election proceed by law to collect the same.

Said party of the second part shall not sell, mortgage or remove from the premises any of the crops raised thereon during this lease without the written consent of the party of the first party, unless all past due rent and rents becoming due for that current year are fully paid. Said first party reserves the right to sell said leased premises at any time, in which event said second party agrees to give possession of said premises on the first day of March following said sale, provided said first party gives said second party 60 days notice thereof.

It is understood that the said party of the first part shall have in addition to the lien given by law, a lien upon the term of this lease, and a lien upon all the property of the said party of the second part, used or situated upon the leased premises, whether said property is exempt from execution or not, for the whole amount of rent agreed to be paid by this lease; and in default of payment, said party of the first part may levy upon said property and sell it to pay said rent.

Said second party further especially agrees not to let any stock to run at large on any part of said land leased in the wet and muddy season of the winter and spring under a forfeiture of all second party's rights, under this lease, and a failure to comply with this section of his lease said second party will pay said first party fifty cents per acre as liquidated damages for the violation hereof and this lease shall stand as security therefor, and said second party further agrees not to sublet any pasture or stock ground, or permit any stock other than his own on said leased premises.

And it is further agreed that if the lessee shall fail to pay his rent, as herein provided, and at times herein stipulated, or shall make default in any of the covenants herein contained, he shall forfeit all his rights under this lease, and the lessor himself or agent may at his option take immediate possession of said premises and may receive such possession by action of forcible entry and detainer; and that at the expiration of this lease he will, without further notice of any kind, quit and surrender the occupancy and possession of said premises in as good condition as they now are or may at any time be placed during this lease, reasonable wear and damage by fire as aforesaid, superior force, or inevitable necessity alone excepted.

In witness whereof the said parties have hereunto set their names on the day first above written.

I, Elgie E. Fenimore do herein agree to move on live on the within described land during the life of this lease.
