No. 2919. Filed Nov. 12, 1897. J.M. Joseph Clerk district Court.

In the District Court of the State of Iowa, in and for Union County;

November Term, 1897

Polly J. Gray
vs
E. J. Gray

DECREE

And now on this 11th day of November, 1897, the same being the 4th day of November Term of the District Court in and for Union County Iowa, and this cause coming on for hearing: Sullivan & Sullivan appearing for Plaintiff, and Defendant not appearing, and the Court finding from an inspection of the Original Notice in this cause that the same was served by publication on the Defendant E. J. Gray, by publication in the Independent American, a weekly newspaper published at Creston, Iowa, Union County, Iowa; The last publication being more than 10 days prior to the first day of November Term, of this Court, and the Court finding said Notice being regularly and legally served upon the Defendant within the time required by law, and said defendant having failed to appear or plead to said cause, it declared and decreed to be in default for want of an answer; And said cause now coming on for hearing, and the Plaintiff introducing her proof, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, finds the equities with the Plaintiff:-

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Plaintiff & Defendant, are this day dissolved, and the said Plaintiff is divorced from said defendant:-

It is further ordered adjudged and decreed that she have all the rights of an unmarried woman:-

It is further ordered adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of the minor children to-wit, Thomas Gray, Mary Silva Gray and Frank Gray, be given to Plaintiff herein:- And said Defendant is enjoined from interfering with the Plaintiff in the possession of custody or control of said children.

It is further ordered adjudged and decreed by the Court that the plaintiff pay the costs of this action taxed at $-----

W.H. Ledford, Judge of the District Court.
