Robert L. Leach, Superintendent of Banking of the State of Iowa, Plaintiff)

vs.

ORDER.

State Bank of Dexter, of Dexter, Iowa, Defendant.

Be it remembered that on the 15th day of July, A.D. 1925, this cause came on for hearing upon the Interlocutory Final Report of the Honorable Robert L. Leach, Superintendent of Banking of the State of Iowa, Receiver of the State Bank of Dexter, of Dexter, Iowa, accompanied by his application for discharge.

Thereafter the Court inspected the proofs of service of notice of the hearing upon said Interlocutory Final Report and petition for discharge and finds that notice of such hearing has been given in conformity to the order of this Court entered herein on the 1st day of July, A.D. 1925, by publication in the Dexter Sentinel, a newspaper published at Dexter, Iowa, in its issue as of date July 2nd, 1925, all as shown by the affidavit of the publisher on file herein.

Thereafter the hearing was held upon said final report and application for discharge and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that said Interlocutory Final Report should be approved the Honorable Robert L. Leach, Superintendent of Banking of the State of Iowa be discharged as such Receiver and his bondsmen exonerated.

The Court further finds that the Honorable L.A. Andrew having qualified as Receiver of the said bank as of midnight, June 30th, 1925, his approved as of that date is ratified, confirmed and approved.

Wherefore, it is order^{ed} adjudged and decreed by the Court that Robert L. Leach, Superintendent of Banking of the State of Iowa, be discharged as receiver of the State Bank of Dexter, of Dexter, Iowa.

That all of his doings as such Receiver as shown by his several reports on file herein be and the same are approved.

That as of said date, midnight June 30th, 1925, the bonds of the said Robert L. Leach as Receiver of the said Bank be and they are discharged.

That this receivership be continued under the direction of the Honorable L. A. Andrew, Superintendent of Banking of the State of Iowa, as Receiver of the State Bank of Dexter, of Dexter, Iowa. That the Examiner in Charge, Harry R. Lenhart, appointed for the purpose of assisting the Superintendent of Banking of the State of Iowa in the duty of the liquidation of the assets and the distribution of the proceeds thereof continue in the performance of his duties as such.

All of which is finally ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court.

Head, signed and approved in open court this 15th day of July A.D. 1925.

J. H. Applegate,
Judge.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF IOWA IN AND FOR DALLAS COUNTY.

Robert L. Leach, Superintendent of Banking of the State of Iowa, Plaintiff
vs
The State Bank of Dexter, Iowa, Defendant.

ORDER APPOINTING RECEIVER.

Now on this fourth day of March A.D. 1924, this matter came on for hearing before the Hon. W.S. Cooper, a judge of the district court of the State of Iowa in and for Dallas County, upon the petition of the Honorable Robert L. Leach, superintendent of banking of the State of Iowa, in which petition an order is prayed asking for the liquidation, distribution of the assets and winding up of the affairs of the defendant, the State Bank of Dexter, Iowa, and further asking for the appointment of the superintendent of banking of the State of Iowa and of his successors in office as receiver for the defendant bank and further praying for an order authorizing the superintendent of banking of the State of Iowa and his successors in office to designate an examiner for the purpose of assisting said superintendent of banking in the performance of his duties as such receiver. The plaintiff appears by his attorney, the Honorable Ben J. Gibson, the Attorney General of Iowa, and the defendant appears in person and by written appearance of its board of directors, all in conformity to a resolution duly adopted by said board of directors on the 3 day of March A.D. 1924, at its bank building in Dexter, Dallas County, Iowa.

Thereafter this cause is fully tried and submitted to the court upon the pleadings, proof and evidence introduced by the plaintiff and the appearance of the defendant as aforesaid and the court, being fully advised in the premises, finds

1. That the defendant in the above entitled cause has expressly waived time and accepted service of notice of the pendency of this suit, all as shown by such acceptance on file herein and that the defendant has entered its personal appearance in open court in this suit.

and that this court has fully jurisdiction of both the parties and the subject matter hereof.

2. The court further finds that the equities of this cause are with the plaintiff and that an order should be entered by this court providing for the liquidation of the liabilities, the distribution of the assets and the winding up of the affairs of the defendant bank and further providing for the appointment of the Honorable Robert L. Leach, superintendent of banking of the State of Iowa, and his successors in office as permanent receiver of said defendant bank for the purpose providing for the appointment of said receiver of an examiner to take charge of the assets of said liquidation, distribution and dissolution.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the court.

1. That the Honorable Robert L. Leach, superintendent of banking of the State of Iowa, and his successors in office, be and he is appointed as permanent receiver of the defendant, the State Bank of Dexter, Iowa, all for the purpose of carrying out the orders and decrees of the court as herein entered and as may be hereafter entered by the court in this case.

That in the event the Honorable Robert L. Leach shall cease to be banking superintendent of the State of Iowa, then and in that event his Successor in office shall file with the District Court of Dallas County, Iowa, a certified copy of his appointment as such superintendent of banking of the state of Iowa, and from thence forth such successor shall act as such receiver and the court further provides that said receivership shall be continued in the same manner as to all succeeding superintendents of banking in the state of Iowa during the pendency of this receivership proceeding.

2. Said receiver is hereby vested with full power and authority to appoint an additional bank examiner in the expense of this receivership to assist him as such receiver in the liquidation of the liabilities, the distribution of the assets and the dissolution of defendant banking superintendent of the state of Iowa and shall qualify in this court by filing herein a certificate duly certified by the superintendent of banking of the state of Iowa.

3. Said receiver is hereby vested with full power and authority to incur all necessary expenses in connection with said receivership and to employ counsel all in accordance with the order of this court, as herein and hereafter entered upon the application of such receiver.

4. Said receiver is hereby authorized to employ such clerical help and assistants as may be necessary in the work of liquidation, distribution and dissolution as in this decree provided.

5. Said receiver shall perform such other and further duties as are usually incumbent upon a permanent receiver of a banking institution under the laws of this state and may prosecute or continue actions at law or in equity for the collection of all claims due or to become due said defendant banking institution or this receivership and may defend actions at law or suits in equity against said defendant or this receivership or to preserve the property thereof, all in accordance with the directions and orders of this court in the premises.

6. The court reserves the right from time to time as circumstances may arise to make such additional orders in the premises as will secure, preserve and protect the interest of the several stockholders and creditors of the defendant.

7. The receiver and examiner in charge as herein provided shall each furnish bond to this court conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and the faithful preservation of the property of the defendant banking institution and the faithful accounting for its funds in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars. The expense of such bonds shall be paid as state expenses of the receivership. The compensation of the bank examiner shall be the compensation of such examiner as fixed by law and shall be paid as other expenses of the receivership.

8. Said receiver shall file duplicates of his reports with the attorney general of the state of Iowa and with this court and shall report his doings from time to time as may be necessary and as may be order by this court.

All of which is finally ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court.
