It is hereby further agreed, that the said first party shall pay all taxes or assessments on the premises hereby conveyed or on the lien created by this instrument before the same become delinquent, and any failure so to do shall authorize said second party, its successors and assigns, at its or their option, to pay all such taxes or assessments at the expense of said first party; and the sums of money paid therefor, and the interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum, shall become a lien under this mortgage on said real estate.
