All rights of homestead and contingent interests known as dower, or however else, are hereby conveyed. To be void upon the following conditions:

First. That the mortgagors shall pay to the mortgagee or its heirs, executors, or assigns, the sum of Six thousand & no/100 ($ 6000.00) Dollars, on the 1st day of November A. D. 1927, with interest according to the tenor and effect of the one certain promissory note with-out coupons attached, of the said Jennie H. Thomson, Gladys H. Thomson, and Margaret H. Second. That the mortgagors shall keep the buildings on said real estate insured in some responsible company or companies, satisfactory to mortgagee, for the use and security of the mortgagee, in a sum not less than their insurable value, and deliver to the mortgagee the policies and renewal receipts.

Third. The mortgagors shall pay, when due, and before delinquent, all taxes which are, or become, a lien on said premises; if mortgagors fail either to so pay such taxes, or promptly to effect such insurance, then the mortgagee may do so; and should the mortgagee become involved in litigation, either in maintaining the security created by this mortgage, or its priority, then this mortgage shall secure to the mortgagee the payment and recovery of all money, costs, expenses, or advancements incurred or made necessary thereby, as also for taxes or insurance paid hereunder; and all such amounts shall constitute a part of the debt hereby secured, to the same extent, as if such amounts were a part of the original debt secured hereby, and with eight per cent per annum interest thereon, from the date of such payments.

A failure to comply with any one or more of the above conditions of this mortgage, either wholly or in part, including the payment of interest when due shall, at the mortgagee's option, cause the whole sums hereby secured to become due and collectible forthwith without notice or demand.

And the mortgagors hereby pledge the rents, issues, and profits of said real property for the payment of said principal sum, interest, attorney's fees, and costs, and authorize, agree, and consent that in case of any default as above mentioned, and the filing of a bill or petition for the foreclosure of this mortgage, the court in which said suit shall be instituted, or any judge thereof, shall, at the commencement of said action or at any stage during the pendency or progress of said cause, on application of the plaintiff, without any notice whatever, appoint a receiver to take possession of said property, and collect and receive said rents and profits and apply the same to the payment of said debt under the order of the court; and this stipulation for the appointment of a receiver shall apply and be in force whether or not said property or any part thereof is used as a homestead, and without proof of any other grounds for the appointment of a receiver than the default aforesaid.

This stipulation is hereby made binding on said mortgagors, their heirs, administrators, executors, grantees, lessees, tenants, and assigns, and in case of the renting or leasing of said premises, while this mortgage remains unsatisfied, all rent shall be paid by the tenant or lessee to the mortgagee herein, or assigns, to apply on said debt as aforesaid, and no payment made to any one other than said mortgagee, or his assigns, shall constitute payment or discharge of said rental.

And in the event a suit is lawfully commenced to foreclose this mortgage, mortgagee's reasonable attorney's fees are to be considered as a part of the costs of the suit and collected in the same manner.
