The Company may rent and re-rent said premises, pay taxes and assessments thereon, insure, repair and improve the buildings belonging thereto, and make such other expenditures and advancements on said buildings and said real estate as it may deem necessary, proper or expedient.

In consideration of such grant of possession, the Company covenants and agrees that in the event said mortgage is foreclosed, either it will, as plaintiff, bid at special execution sale held pursuant to foreclosure proceedings, the entire amount of the mortgage claim, satisfying in full any judgment that may be obtained in such action, or, upon acquisition of title to said real estate by Sheriff's Deed or otherwise, it will release any deficiency judgment against the Owner, remaining after the application thereon of the net rents and profits accruing prior to the delivery of said deed.

The Company shall apply upon the delinquencies under said mortgage any balance of the rents and proceeds remaining after payment of all costs, expenses and advancements hereinabove authorized, and in the event of redemption of said real estate from special execution sale following foreclosure of said mortgage, the amount required to redeem shall be credited with such net returns, as may be on hand at the time redemption is made.

And it is further agreed that at such time prior to foreclosure proceedings as the Company receives satisfaction in full, whether by way of returns from said real estate or direct payment by the Owner, or both, of all items then delinquent under said mortgage and reimbursement for all costs, expenses and advancements theretofore made or incurred pursuant to this agreement, all rights of the Company hereunder shall terminate and possession of said premises shall be restored to the Owner.

The right of possession, together with the power and authority hereinabove granted to the Company shall continue so long as the above described mortgage remains an enforceable lien against said real estate, and during the period of redemption under any foreclosure proceedings, unless this agreement is sooner terminated as hereinabove provided.

Nothing herein contained shall prejudice the rights of the Company under said mortgage or be construed to bar the institution of foreclosure proceedings thereon, at the election of said Company.
