This conveyance shall secure any and all renewals or extensions of the whole or any part of said indebtedness however evidenced, with interest at such lawful rate as may be agreed upon and any such renewals or extensions or any change in the terms or rate of interest shall not impair in any manner the validity of, or priority of this mortgage or release the party of the first part from personal liability for the debt hereby secured.

The part i^se of the first part, for them and for their heirs, executors and administrators, do hereby COVENANT AND AGREE with the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, as follows:

FIRST.—To pay all taxes, assessments and charges of every character which are now, or which hereafter may become liens on said real estate when due, also all taxes assessed in Iowa against the party of the second part, or its assigns on this mortgage, or the notes or debt secured hereby, before the same become delinquent, provided the amount of such latter taxes, together with the interest on the debt secured hereby, does not exceed the maximum permitted by law to be paid, but if it does, the excess is to be paid by the party of the second part; to deliver to the party of the second part, receipts showing payment thereof, and if not paid, the party of the second part may pay such taxes, liens and assessments, and this mortgage shall stand as security for the amount so paid with interest.

In case of failure to keep said buildings so insured the holder of this mortgage may effect such insurance, and this mortgage shall stand as security for the amount so paid. The party of the first part hereby assigns and transfers to the party of the second part all right and interest in all policies of insurance carried or to be carried upon said real estate.

FOURTH.—To pay reasonable attorney's fees and all expenses (including continuation of abstract) of the party of the second part in case of any litigation involving this real estate, or in case of foreclosure of this mortgage, or in presenting claim under any administration or other proceedings where proof of claim is required by law to be filed, or in case any note secured hereby is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection and be collected without suit.

SIXTH.—That if the party of the second part herein is now or hereafter becomes the owner or holder of a mortgage or mortgages, other than this, upon the premises herein described, or any part thereof, that failure to comply with any of the requirements or conditions of either of said mortgages which failure would mature the indebtedness secured by it, shall mature, at the option of the party of the second part herein, the indebtedness under all such mortgages.

SEVENTH.—That as additional and collateral security for the payment of the note or notes and the indebtedness hereinbefore described, said party of the first part hereby assigns to said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, all of the rents, profits, revenues, rights, royalties and benefits accruing under all tenancies and leases now on said premises, or which may hereafter be placed thereon and the tenant, lessee or assignee or sub-lessee is hereby directed on production of this mortgage or certified copy thereof, to pay said rents, profits, revenues, rights, royalties and benefits to said party of the second part, its successors and assigns; this provision to become effective only upon default in the terms and conditions of this mortgage or the note or notes hereby secured, or prior to such default, upon notice to the lessee in such lease, and to terminate and become null and void upon release of this mortgage.

EIGHTH.—Should developments for oil, gas or minerals on said lands at any time be such as, in the opinion of the party of the second part, or the holder of said note or notes secured hereby, to render said land less desirable as security for the indebtedness hereby secured, then the holder of said note or notes shall have the right to declare said note or notes and all indebtedness secured hereby due and payable without notice, and the holder of such note or notes shall have the same rights hereunder for the collection of same and of said indebtedness as though said note or notes had become due by the efflux of time and default in the payment thereof.

NINTH.—That the said party of the first part shall not be liable for the payment of any charges or interest provided for in this mortgage that may be found could not lawfully be made under the laws of the State of Iowa, it being fully agreed and understood that it is the intention of the party of the second part that this mortgage shall in all respects conform to the laws of said State, and should any payments be made by the party of the first part that are found to be contrary to the laws of said State, the party of the first part shall be entitled to the return of all sums so paid, and this mortgage shall not be affected thereby.

As a further consideration for this mortgage and the notes and debt secured hereby, all signatories to same bind themselves personally for the payment and satisfaction thereof.

A failure to comply with any one of the agreements hereof shall cause the whole debt to become due and collectible, if said party of the second part or assigns so elect, and no demand for fulfillment of broken conditions or notice of election to consider the debt due shall be necessary previous to commencement of suit to collect the debt hereby secured, or any part thereof, or to foreclose this mortgage, and said party of the second part or assigns may take immediate possession of said land and of the crops matured or growing thereon and account for the net profits only and such possession shall in no way retard collection or foreclosure.

In event of default in any of the conditions of this mortgage or foreclosure of this mortgage for any reason, the Court, or any Judge thereof, upon application therefor, shall appoint a receiver for said real estate and said crops or rents.
