Third. The mortgagors shall pay, when due, and before delinquent, all taxes which are, or become, a lien on said premises; if mortgagors fail either to so pay such taxes, or promptly to effect such insurance, then the mortgagee may do so; and should the mortgagee become involved in litigation, either in maintaining the security created by this mortgage, or its priority, then this mortgage shall secure to the mortgagee the payment and recovery of all money, costs, expenses, or advancements incurred or made necessary thereby, as also for taxes or insurance paid hereunder; and all such amounts shall constitute a part of the debt hereby secured, to the same extent, as if such amounts were a part of the original debt secured hereby, and with eight per cent per annum interest thereon, from the date of such payments.

A failure to comply with any one or more of the above conditions of this mortgage, either wholly or in part, including the payment of interest when due shall, at the mortgagee's option, cause the whole sums hereby secured to become due and collectible forthwith without notice or demand.
