Provided always, and these presents are upon the following express conditions, to wit: That the said parties of the first part shall well and truly pay the said note and the interest promptly as they become due, and shall pay all taxes and assessments against said premises when they become due; and that when any taxes or assessments shall be made upon said loan or upon said party of the second part or assigns, on account of said loan, either by the State of Iowa or by the county, city or town wherein said land is situated, the parties of the first part will pay such taxes or assessments when the same become due and payable; and that they will keep the buildings upon the above described real estate insured in such forms of insurance as may be required by the party of the second part, in some solvent incorporated insurance company or companies approved by the said party of the second part for a sum satisfactory to the said party of the second part, for the benefit of the party of the second part herein or assigns, so long as the debt above secured shall remain unpaid, and make the policy or policies of insurance payable to the party of the second part herein, or assigns, as collateral security for the debt hereby secured.
