That I know that the following described real estate situated in the City of Winterset, Madison County, Iowa, to-wit:-

was at the time of the death of John Catterlin occupied by him as his homestead, and that his surviving widow, Idlewild Catterlin, elected to occupy said homestead during her life in lieu of her distributive share therein, and that she did in fact occupy said real estate from the time of the death of her husband, John Catterlin, until the time of her death.
