Miscellaneous Record, No. 22, Madison County, Iowa

her surviving husband's name was Luther Sheppard, and the last I knew of his whereabouts was St. Joseph, Missouri.

That I was well and personally acquainted with Margarete Sheppard a daughter of John H. Berry, who, intermarried with one Charles Sheppard. That both died leaving as their children and heirs at law Archie Sheppard, May Andrews, Agnes Brown, Edna Crosby, Gladys Sheppard and Orville Sheppard, and that the Defendant May Andrews is the same identical person as Mae Sheppard Andrews who accepted service of the Original Notice herein in Montgomery County, Iowa.

That the Defendant, Archie Sheppard is one and the same person as Archie G. Sheppard who accepted service of the Original Notice in Montgomery County, Iowa.

And the Defendant Agnes Brown is the identical person who accepted service of the Original Notice in Montgomery County, Iowa, under the name of Angas Sheppard Brown. That the said Agnes Sheppard Brown, defendant in said action, was not at any time during either of the years 1934, 1935 or 1936, a resident of Crawford Township, Madison County, Iowa, but was for said years and many years prior thereto a resident of Montgomery County, Iowa, and the Agnes J. Brown against whom taxes appear in Crawford Township, Madison County, Iowa, for the years 1934, 1935 and 1936, is a different person and one having no interest in the lands involved in said suit.

All of which is true as I verily believe.
