Saturday, March 16th, 1935.

J. H. Evans,-----Plaintiff, }

vs. }

Decree of Divorce.

Zoe Evans,-----Defendant. }

Now this day comes the plaintiff in person and by attorney, and the defendant, having in the above entitled cause waived the issuance and service of summons upon her by an officer and has entered her appearance, to appear on the first day of said term and answer the petition of plaintiff in this cause, fails to appear within the time prescribed by law and this cause coming on to be heard, said defendant comes not but makes default, which default is by order of the Court entered herein against defendant, Zoe Evans. Whereupon plaintiff announces ready for trial and submits his cause to the Court for hearing.

And the Court proceeds to hear the evidence on part of plaintiff and same being heard and fully understood, the Court finds that the matters alleged in plaintiff's petition are true in the substance and in fact, that J. H. Evans is the innocent and injured party and entitled to relief prayed for in said petition.

It is therefore considered, adjudged, ordered and decreed by the Court that the bonds of matrimony contracted by and existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, annulled and for naught held and that the plaintiff is hereby divorced therefrom and restored to all the rights and privileges of a single and unmarried person.
