Third. The mortgagors shall pay, when due, and before delinquent, all taxes which are, or become, a lien on said premises; if mortgagors fail either to pay such taxes, or promptly to effect such insurance, then the mortgagee may do so; and should the mortgagee become involved in litigation, either in maintaining the security created by this mortgage, or its priority, then this mortgage shall secure to the mortgagee the payment and recovery of all money, costs, expenses, or advancements incurred or made necessary thereby, as also for taxes and insurance paid hereunder; and all such amounts shall constitute a part of the debt hereby secured, to the same extent, as if such amounts were a part of the original debt secured hereby, and with eight per cent per annum interest thereon, from the date of such payments.

This stipulation is hereby made binding on said mortgagors, their heirs, administrators, executors, grantees, lessees, tenants, and assigns, and in case of the renting or leasing of said premises, while this mortgage remains unsatisfied, all rent shall be paid by the tenant or lessee to the mortgagee herein, or assigns, to apply on said debt as aforesaid, and no payment made to any one other than said mortgagee, or his assigns, shall constitute payment or discharge of said rental.

And in the event a suit is lawfully commenced to foreclose this mortgage, mortgagee's reasonable attorney's fees are to be considered as a part of the costs of the suit and collected in the same manner.
