PARTICULAR COVENANTS OF THE CORPORATION

The Corporation covenants with the Trustee for the benefit of all those who shall from time to time hold notes (hereinafter sometimes collectively called the "noteholders"), and each of them, as follows:

SECTION 1. The Corporation is duly authorized under its articles of incorporation and bylaws and the laws of the State of its incorporation and all other applicable provisions of law to execute and deliver the First Note and this Indenture, and to execute and deliver additional notes and notes to refund, or in renewal of, or substitution for, outstanding notes; and all corporate action on its part for the execution and delivery of the First Note and of this Indenture has been duly and effectively taken; and the First Note and this Indenture are the valid and enforceable obligations of the Corporation in accordance with their respective terms.

The Corporation warrants that it has good right and lawful authority to mortgage the property described in the granting clauses of this Indenture for the purposes herein expressed; and that the said property is free and clear of any deed of trust, mortgage, lien, charge, or encumbrance thereon or affecting the title thereto, except the lien of this Indenture and taxes or assessments not yet due. The Corporation will, so long as any of the notes shall be outstanding, maintain and preserve the lien of this Indenture superior to all other liens affecting the Trust Estate and will forever warrant and defend the title to the property, described as being conveyed and assigned hereby to the Trustee, for the benefit of the noteholders, against any and all claims and demands whatsoever. The Corporation will promptly pay or discharge any and all obligations for or on account of which any such lien or charge might exist or could be created and any and all lawful taxes, rates, levies, assessments, liens, claims, or other charges imposed upon or accruing upon the Trust Estate, or any part thereof (whether taxed to the Corporation or to the Trustee or to any noteholder), or the franchises, earnings, or business of the Corporation, as and when the same shall become due and payable; and whenever called upon so to do the Corporation will furnish to the Trustee or to any noteholder adequate proof of such payments or discharge.

SECTION 4. The Corporation will duly and punctually pay the principal of and interest on the notes at the dates and places and in the manner provided therein, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and also all other sums becoming due hereunder.

SECTION 5. The Corporation will at all times, so long as any of the notes shall be outstanding, take or cause to be taken all such action as from time to time may be necessary to preserve its corporate existence and to preserve and renew all franchises, rights of way, easements, permits, and licenses now or hereafter to it granted or upon it conferred, and will comply with all valid laws, ordinances, regulations, and requirements applicable to it or its property. The Corporation will, upon request of the holder or holders of notes in the principal amount above specified, submit to the noteholder designated in such request a schedule of its insurance in effect on the date specified in such request and also originals or duplicate originals of such insurance policies as may be requested. If the Corporation shall at any time fail or refuse to take out or maintain insurance or to make changes in respect thereof upon appropriate request by such note holder or noteholders, such noteholder or noteholders may take out such insurance on behalf and in the name of the Corporation, and the Corporation will pay the cost thereof.

SECTION 9. In the event of the failure of the Corporation in any respect to comply with the covenants and conditions herein contained with respect to the procuring of insurance, the payment of taxes, assessments, and other charges, the keeping of the Trust Estate in repair and free of liens and other claims or to comply with any other covenant contained in this Indenture, the Trustee or any noteholder or noteholders shall have the right (without prejudice to any other rights arising by reason of such default) to advance or expend moneys for the purpose of procuring such insurance, or for the payment of insurance premiums, taxes, assessments, or other charges, or to save the Trust Estate from sale or forfeiture for any unpaid tax or assessment or otherwise, or to redeem the same from any tax or other sale, or to purchase any tax title thereon, or to remove or purchase any mechanics' liens or other encumbrance thereon, or to make repairs thereon, or to comply with any other covenant herein contained,

It shall not be obligatory for the Trustee or any noteholder in making any such advances or expenditures to inquire into the validity of any such tax title, or of any of such taxes or assessments or sales therefor, or of any such mechanics' liens or other encumbrance.

SECTION 10. The Corporation will not, without the approval in writing of the holder or holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the notes at the time outstanding: construct, make, lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire any extensions or additions to its system, or enter into any contract therefor, except such extensions or additions as may be financed with loans evidenced by additional notes; construct any customer services at its expense in excess of one pole and one span of wire in addition to a service drop not more than one hundred fifty (150) feet in length; enter into any contract or contracts for the operation or maintenance of all or any part of its property, for the purchase of electric energy or for the use by others of any of its property; or incur any expenses for legal, engineering, supervisory, accounting, or other similar services, except such reasonable expenses as are incurred in the routine course of business.

SECTION 11.
