Petition for proof of heirship only; Waiver of notice and consent to immediate hearing; Proof of Heirship; Costs paid and estate closed

Lillie McKean, Deceased

Now on this 25th day of April, A.D. 1941 comes Andrew McKean, husband of Lillie McKean, deceased, by Barr and Barr, his attorneys, and files and presents to the Court his petition, praying that the Court ascertain the heirship in the estate of said deceased.

And the Court having examined said petition, and it appearing that decedent left no property of any kind or character and no administration proceedings will be had herein and that Elva Mae Pray, John Hill, Ray Hill, Jessie Mylan, and Lloyd Hill, heirs of decedent, have filed with said petition their waiver of notice and consent that an immediate hearing be had thereon, the Court proceeds to hear the evidence adduced in open Court by the said Andrew McKean, petitioner herein, as to the heirship in said estate.

And the Court having heard such evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds that Lillie McKean at the time of her death was a resident of Will County, Illinois but died at Des Moines, Iowa, while temporarily there sojourning, on June 2, 1940, never having adopted any child or children and leaving her surviving: Andrew McKean, husband; John Hill, son; Ray Hill, son; Lloyd Hill, son; Elva Mae Pray, daughter; Jessie Mylan, daughter; her only heirs at law.

And it appearing that the costs herein have been paid, it is ordered by the Court that said estate be and the same is hereby closed.
