State of Illinois County of Hancock Dallas City.

In the matter of the estate of George B. Rollosson deceased.

William H. Rollosson, a credible witness, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say, that his brother George B. Rollosson, at the time a resident of said city, departed this life, intestate, in said city, on or about the eighth day of November A.D. 1892; that said decedent left him no widow surviving, -he never having been married; that William H. Rollosson the father of said decedent, departed this life, in said city, on or about the ninth day of October 1864; -and that the said George B. Rollosson, at the time of his death left him surviving as his only heirs at law, the following named persons, and none other, that is to say: Marietta Rollosson his mother, and this affiant-his brother, both residents of said city, and John M. Rollosson, his brother, resident of Burlington, Iowa. The affiant further says, that any known just debt or claim against the said George B. Rollosson, or his estate, have been paid, and none are out-standing, and that no administration was ever granted upon his/ estate.
