George L. DeLacy, being first duly sworn upon his oath deposes and says as follows:

That he is fifty-four years of age; that he is the son of Catherine K. DeLacy, who departed this life at Lincoln, Nebraska, in the year 1936; that Catherine K. DeLacy left surviving her as her heirs and next of kin, George H. DeLacy, her husband, now residing with this affiant in Omaha, age eighty-six; also a daughter, Florence Greenslit, residing at Ravenna, Nebraska, being married to Roy Greenslit of that city.

Affiant further says that the said Catherine K. DeLacy left no other heirs; that your affiant and his sister, Florence, were the only children which the said Catherine K. DeLacy ever had; that as aforesaid, both of said children are still living and that her husband is still living.

Affiant further says that at the death of said Catherine K. DeLacy she was not indebted to anyone; that she had no obligations of any character nor any debts.

Affiant further says that he himself paid all of the expenses of the last illness and all funeral expenses.

Affiant further says that said Catherine K. DeLacy left no estate except certain personal effects and furniture, and that no administration was had of her estate, as she was not obligated to anyone and had no debts. Further affiant saith not.
