Upon violation of this undertaking, or if the mortgagor is prohibited by any law now or hereafter existing or by court decree from paying the whole or any portion of the aforesaid tax, or if said law or decree provides that the amount so paid by the mortgagor shall be credited on the mortgage debt, then the debt hereby secured shall, at the option of the mortgagee, its successors and assigns, become immediately due and collectible, notwithstanding anything contained herein or in any law hereafter enacted.
- (3) Mortgagor will keep the buildings now on said land, and which may be placed thereon, insured for their full insurable value against loss by fire, lightning, wind and tornado in insurance companies approved by the mortgagee, with standard form of mortgage clause without contribution attached in favor of the mortgagee, and will pay the premiums thereon and deliver the policies, renewals and renewal receipts to the mortgagee prior to expiration.

(8) Any part of the security herein described may be released by the record owner of said note without affecting the lien hereof on the remainder; and the security hereof shall not affect or be affected by any other security taken for the same indebtedness, or any part thereof, and the taking of additional security, or the extension of time of payment of said indebtedness, or any part thereof, shall at no time release or impair the security hereof or the liability of any maker, endorser or surety or security.

(9) If mortgagor fails to do or perform, as and when performable, any of the things which he herein obligates himself to do and perform, then mortgagee shall have the power, but shall not be obligated, to do them, and the amount paid or advanced by mortgagee, with interest at the rate of 7% per annum from the date paid, shall become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage and shall be immediately repaid by mortgagor to mortgagee.

(10) Mortgagor will not sell said land unless the purchaser, as part of the consideration, agrees to assume the payment of said indebtedness and the obligations of this mortgage, and the deed shall so provide; and will not grant any easement on said land without the joinder therein of the note owner. If rented for cash, rental payable in advance, such rental shall, at the option of the note owner, be paid to it, and if so paid, shall be applied on the indebtedness hereby secured.

(11) If said indebtedness is collected through legal proceedings, then there shall be added as part of the debt hereby secured the expense of procuring documentary evidence and abstract of title. If an action is brought to foreclose this mortgage, or if the mortgagee is made or becomes a party to any suit by reason of this mortgage or if the mortgage shall be placed in the hands of an attorney, or be established or allowed in any court, the mortgagor shall pay a reasonable attorney's fee, and said fee shall be immediately due and on demand paid by mortgagor to mortgagee and said fee shall be a further lien upon said premises and secured by this mortgage, and may be taxed as costs in said suit. And it is agreed that upon institution of proceedings to foreclose this mortgage, the mortgagee or assigns shall be entitled without making any proof required by statute, to have a receiver appointed to take charge of said property during such litigation and until the period of redemption expires, and to pay taxes thereon.

(12) If any provision of this instrument is held to be void, it shall not affect the validity of any other provision herein.

(13) The mortgagor agrees that if any of the mortgaged premises or any easement therein is taken by virtue of the law of eminent domain the mortgagor will promptly notify the mortgagee, or assigns, of the institution of such proceedings and of any attempted purchase, or appropriation of said property or any easement therein by any public authority, or by any person or corporation having the right of eminent domain, and agree and direct that all condemnation or purchase money which may be agreed upon or found due shall be paid to the mortgagee or assigns and be credited upon said indebtedness.

(14) In construing this mortgage the word "mortgagor" wherever used shall be held to mean the persons named in the preamble constituting the mortgagor or mortgagors jointly and severally.

(15) It is further understood and agreed that the joining in and execution of this mortgage and of the note herein mentioned by the spouse of the holder of the title to the mortgaged premises and the agreement of such spouse to pay the said indebtedness and the interest thereon, and to perform the agreements and conditions in this mortgage, are material considerations for the granting of the loan secured hereby.

(16) It is also agreed that all the agreements and provisions contained herein shall run with the land and be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the mortgagor, and shall inure to the benefit of the mortgagee, its successors and assigns.

(17) Notwithstanding any indulgence or extension by mortgagee in case of default or breach in any provision of this mortgage or the note secured hereby, the mortgagee may declare the entire mortgage indebtedness due and foreclose this mortgage in case of any subsequent default or breach of a promise, stipulation or covenant contained in this mortgage or the note secured hereby.

It is further agreed that should there be any failure or default in the performance of any of the covenants or agreements herein contained, or if any part of said note or interest is not paid when due, or should any proceedings be begun to enforce or collect any junior lien, or should said premises come into the possession or control of any court prior to the payment of the debt herein secured, then all of said indebtedness and accrued interest shall thereupon become due and payable without further notice, at the election of the note owner, exercised at any time after such default or failure, or the happening of any of said events, and the note owner is authorized to take possession of said mortgaged premises and of all crops growing or stored thereon, and shall have all other rights and remedies as provided herein or by law, and said mortgagee may proceed at once, or at any time, to foreclose said mortgage.

This mortgage shall not be foreclosed solely for failure to make a principal payment so long as the amount actually paid on the principal of the debt equals or exceeds the total of the required principal payments which have then matured under the original terms of the note secured hereby. Funds paid to mortgagee for a partial release of the mortgage, or from sale of timber, oil, gas, gravel, stone or other minerals, or for any easement, or from the proceeds of any insurance loss, or from any other source which decreases the extent of the mortgage lien or the security thereof, shall not be considered an "amount actually paid on the principal of the debt" in construing the preceding sentence herein, but such funds, upon receipt by mortgagee, shall be credited to the final maturing principal installment so as to accelerate the date of completing payment of the debt.

Neither this mortgage nor the note secured hereby shall be deemed in default solely for failure to make an installment payment so long as the amount actually paid on the debt (either as principal or interest) equals or exceeds the total of the required installment payments which have then matured under the original terms of said note. Funds paid to mortgagee for a partial release of the mortgage, or from sale of timber, oil, gas, gravel, stone or other minerals or for any easement, or from the proceeds of any insurance loss, or from any other source which decreases the extent of the mortgage lien or the security thereof, shall not be considered an "amount actually paid on the debt (either as principal or interest)" in construing the preceding sentence herein, but such funds, upon receipt by mortgagee, shall be credited to the final maturing principal installment so as to accelerate the date of completing payment of the debt.
