LETTER

Earlham, Iowa, March 9, 1944.

To The Board of Trustees of Penn Township, Madison County, Iowa.

Cord Boyle, Clerk.

Gentlemen: --

On May 7th, 1943, the Board of Trustees of Penn Township held a meeting with reference to the building and repairing of the ordered the Wilsons to build and repair their fences and flood gates, and after it was completed I agreed to maintain the fence between the south end of my fence and the Creek.

Now due to the fact they have not completed their fence as directed by the Board ( and I haven't any assurance that they ever will) and exactly 9 months have elapsed since they were first notified. I am now serving Notice that I will not have anything to do with the maintainance of their fence in the future.

I regret very much to call your attention to this matter, but since I am now expergencing a considerable less, and disapointment, with my livestock because of the fact that their fence was not built and repaired as directed by your Board in a reasonable time, I have decided to let the Wilsons look after their own fence.

I realize the Board has tried to get the Wilson's to do their duty, also that it has been a very aggravating case, but I still insist that the fence must be fixed,

COPY.

Yours truly,

Arthur Marks.
