KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, John D. Callison, of the County of Madison, and State of Iowa, for and in consideration of the sum of Two & No/100 ($2.00) Dollars, in hand paid by the Macksburg Telephone Company of Macksburg, Madison County, Iowa, do hereby grant to the said Macksburg Telephone Company the right to extend their telephone wires over and across Lot 54 in the Original Town of Macksburg Iowa, Said Wires to run north and south the full length said lot which is 99 feet. for a period of fifty (50) years from and after the date of this Easement, it being upon the understanding, however, that said telephone company in extending their wires across said premises, shall extend them high enough in the air so as not to interfere with any buildings or the use thereof which may be now on premises, or hereafter erected thereon, and said telephone company is not to set any poles on said premises.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD that said telephone company, its agents, and employees shall have the right to go on said premises for the purpose of building and repairing said telephone lines, it being my intention, by this Easement, to give said telephone company only the right to stretch their wires over the 99 Feet of said real estate.

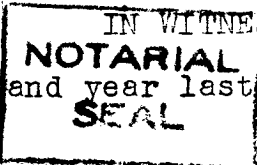

WITNESS MY HAND THIS 15th day of September 1938.

John D. Callison
